- Not for Profit Taekwondo Organization affiliated to your Taekwondo club will receive a cheque for $20.

Respect in Sport (RiS) <http://www.sasksport.sk.ca/RiS/>

This may be the single most important training sport leaders can receive to create a safer, healthier, and more positive environment for our athletes! This training program is used to train coaches, sport personnel and sport leaders to recognize, understand and respond to issues of bullying, harassment, abuse and neglect.

For each member that is:

1 Registered with Sask WTF Taekwondo in the current year - paid $25 membership prior to NOV 2018

2 Must be over the age of 13

3 Estimate time to complete is 3 hours <http://www.sasksport.sk.ca/RiS/pdf/instructions.pdf>

You can exit and return to the site as many times as you like using your user id in order to complete the 5 modules. <https://sasksrc.respectgroupinc.com/secure/>

Once you have finished the program, you will receive an email stating congratulations on completing the program along with a certification number.

Print off your certificate, which is transferable to many sports. Just go back into your profile and add other sports that you participate. –

MUST be REGISTERED as TAEKWONDO - SASK WTF - your club name – to receive recognition

4 Complete and submitted the RiS on-line certificate and number to your Taekwondo Instructor.

#5 The claim is submitted with your membership information prior to DECEMBER 01, 2018, by instructor. Payment to the Not for Profit Organization affiliated with your club will be made prior to April 01, 2019.
